TRAILERING:

Determined by distance to destination

EXPENSES:

CCT tries to take their own live in trailer for all overnight events in order to reduce fees. We ask all riders to split the RV fee for the show.

SHOW ENTRIES:

Please remember that students are responsible for sending entry fees for shows on a timely basis and within the allotted time. All Eventing Shows (even schooling shows!) have a closing date after which new entries are no longer accepted by the host stable.

POLICY FOR LESSON CANCELLATION:

Riders who can not come to their designated lesson time must give at least 24 hours notice to cancel. The rider can send an e-mail, text, or leave a message on my cell phone. (797-3421) If a rider cancels or does not come to his/her lesson without 24 hours notice, the rider will be charged for the missed lesson. (Of course, in certain special circumstances such as an emergency or sudden illness, the fee can be waived.)

POLICY FOR SHOW CANCELLATION:

Riders who can not attend a show for which they have reserved a trailering spot with me must give at least 72 hours notice to cancel. Because these slots are reserved far in advance, a doctor's or veterinarian's note will be required for any show cancellation that occurs within 72 hours of the DEPARTURE TIME for the show. The rider can send an e-mail or leave a message on my cell phone. (797-3421) The rider will be charged the full trailering fee and a $25 show cancellation fee unless a doctor's or veterinarian's note is provided.
